Edmonton's Fame | Crippen Committed for Trial | Is Child a Murderer?

CRIPPEN AND ETHEL LENEVE ARE COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

PRELIMINARY HEARING IN BOW STREET POLICE COURT CONCLUDED TO DAY — SOME DAMAGING EVIDENCE WAS GIVEN.

(Canadian Associated Press)
London, Sept. 21.—Dr. Hawley H. Crippen and Ethel Le Neve went through another session of the preliminary hearing at Bow Street police court today. The former looked more cheerful, occasionally smiling as he talked to Miss Le Neve.
Evidence was given by Inspector Dew, by a bank manager and by Miss Carnow, who succeeded Crippen in the management of the patent pill business.
William Long, in giving evidence, said Crippen called at Manon's early on July 9th, and seemed, troubled. Long asked what was the matter and Crippen replied:
"Only a little scandal."
Long, at Crippen's request, purchased a boy's suit. Crippen and Miss Le Neve were both committed for trial.

IS COLLEGE GIRL AT AGE OF 81

Racine, Wisconsin, Widow Re-Enters Ohio University for Second Year's Work

STILL SEEKS LEARNING

Will Graduate and Take Post-Graduate Course, She Declares — A Punctual Student

Racine, Wis., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Amy D. Winslow, widow of E. B. Winslow, founder of the Winslow Manufacturing Company of Racine, today began her second year course in the Ohio state university at Columbus, despite the fact that she is nearing the eighty-first anniversary of her birth.

For many years before and after her husband's death, Mrs. Winslow was recognized as one of the best read women and closest students in Wisconsin. She appeared to be familiar with all subjects of national and state importance, and for a time it was believed she would become the recognized leader of the woman's suffrage movement in this country.

"Going to Texas after the death of her husband Mrs. Winslow sought to regain her health, and succeeding, again became a close student.

Returning to Racine four years ago she informed relatives that she intended entering some state university, there to take such course as she might determine. She was a woman of means. Her husband left a large estate, but relatives induced her to remain here, and with a large library at her disposal could continue her study of all questions of national importance.

A year ago last July Mrs. Winslow went to Columbus, O., and, unknown to her relatives, took up the examination for entrance into the state university, and was admitted. She took an optional course, and in literature, language and science, met with success. This winter she will study philosophy, psychology, and literature, making a specialty of Shakespeare.
Denied Advantages in Youth
For years she yearned for a scholarly insight into the plays of the immortal bard, but it was not until she reached her eightieth year that the opportunity came. She had been denied the advantages of a high education in youth, and cherished the idea of taking it up as the years rolled by, but when she had passed 75 without the way being opened it was believed she had given it up.

Last winter no snows of the campus and no other conditions of weather were sufficient to keep her from the school rooms. She was the most punctual student at the university. She has declared that she will finish the four year course and probably take a post-graduate course.

STATED BRODEUR IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Greatly Fatigued After Eucharistic Congress and Trip Across the Continent

Montreal, Que., Sept. 21.—A persistent rumor was current here that Hon. L. P. Brodeur was lying seriously ill at the Caledonia Springs Hotel. No word could be obtained from the Springs but Alderman A. H. Brodeur of this city, stated that while the minister was greatly fatigued after the Eucharistic congress his general condition of health was no worse than it has been of late.

It was noticed at the congress that Mr. Brodeur was far from being a well man, and his long trip across the continent from Benoit to Quebec to meet Cardinal Vannutelli tried his stamina.

REPUBLICANS LOSE AGAIN

Democratic Candidates for State Senator From Minnesota Win the Primaries

IT WAS A BIG SURPRISE

Democrats Continue to Defeat Republican Candidate in Primaries All Over States

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 21.—The defeat of Frank B. Minnocks and J. F. McGowan, for the Republican nomination for state senator from the Minneapolis districts, were the biggest surprises of the election here. W. S. Dwinell, with 1,731 votes, received a plurality of 580 over Frank E. Minnocks, and 1,442 over Guy A. Howard.

Almost without exception the conventions for municipal offices in Minneapolis which were picked as favorites on the eve of yesterday's primaries ran pretty true to form and won. W. E. Esterson, by more than four votes to one. His plurality is 3,096. The race is on beginning today between Mr. Haynes and Mr. Satterlee for the mayoralty.

C. A. Bloomquist, Republican, city treasurer, easily defeated J. O. Davis for the city treasurer's position. These three winners, Haynes, Satterlee and Bloomquist carried every ward in the city.

Our Taxation Method Best Publicity Agent

A short time ago the Capital published an item to the effect that the assessors of the city of Palmer, Mass., had become interested in taxation system in vogue in Edmonton and had requested detailed information of the system from the mayor.

They stated that they had read an article on Edmonton's methods of taxation in an American Sunday newspaper. The Capital pointed out at the time that if a city so far distant and with so little in common with this city should be attracted by local methods, that those methods must certainly appeal to them.

This morning another letter was received by the mayor making a similar request and to the end of the epistle was signed the name of an official of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

This is further evidence of Edmonton's fame.

The letter reads as follows:

CASE OF LAND LOTS AND LOTS OF WATER

Man Builds On Lot Lower Than Another, Water Flows on Third; Who's Liable?

"NO ONE," SAYS ONE JUDGE

Walter Renwick, Vermilion, Appeals to Court for Damages From School Trustees

This morning before the Supreme Court on banc the appeal of Walter Renwick vs. the Board of Trustees for Vermilion Central School District No. 1446, was heard. Renwick claimed $400 damages for damage done to his property on First street, North Vermilion, by the flooding of a natural hollow or "watercourse" in July, 1907, before Judge Taylor in the District Court and the case was not allowed.

Mr. McCaull, K.C. for the respondents, opened the case with an argument as to whether there was a regular channel through which the water flowed from one parcel of land to the other. In the former evidence Mr. McCaull said, it was stated that they dug till they found soil, therefore he submitted that there could be no watercourse there.

Judge Taylor, he said, went down to the place and viewed the hollow and decided that they was no watercourse. Judge Harvey said that the view could not be used as evidence.

I would like a woman of medium size, and middle aged, and she must be of good moral character, and of Protestant faith. You will oblige me greatly by letting me hear from you in the near future.

The mayor replied to the writer this morning, informing him that he does not run a matrimonial bureau, nor does he have any intention of starting one. However, he consented to forward any applications he might receive from candidates.

WrestlingFIELDER JONES
RETURNS TO CHIL.Will Manage the White Sox Next Season as Insignificant Salary of $40,000 per.

Vancouver, Sept. 21.—Fielder Jones, former leader of the Chicago White Sox who two years ago quit the diamond and has been living in Portland ever since, after refusing dozens of flattering offers made him by Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago team, to return and assume the management of the club, has at last yielded and will again be seen in a Sox uniform next year. Jones has not publicly announced this, but he confided it to "Cooney" Starkell, at Chelais, a few days ago, after receiving an offer from Comiskey that is probably the biggest money ever paid to a playing manager.

Jones was playing with the Chelais team in the Washington state league, and "Cooney" Starkell was pitching on the same club. After a game the two were quietly seated in the clubhouse talking baseball. During the conversation Jones pulled a letter out of his pocket and handed it to Starkell to read. It was from Comiskey and in short offered him $40,000 for his season's salary and in addition stated that he would give profits to per cent. of the club's profits on the season if he returned next year and took charge of the White Sox.

Starkell asked him what he intended to do about it. Glancing down at the letter and putting it gently with his fingers, Jones replied:

"Do you know what that means? It means about $35,000 to $40,000 for the season's work. That's too much money to turn down, Cooney, I'm going to take it."

Jones told Starkell that Owner Dugdale, of Seattle wanted him to take the Seattle team next year.

"He made me a nice offer," said Jones. "It was as much as any owner of a minor league could offer, but of course I could not afford to accept it. Dug said he would give me $5,000 for the season. I told him I could not take it."

While the information that Fielder Jones has accepted, or intends to accept, Comiskey's offer will be of much interest to followers of baseball, the offer made the great player by Neighbor Dugdale is of more vital importance to the fans in the Northwest. It might be taken to mean that there is a strong movement on foot, a sort of undercurrent, for an all-Coast League; either that or it may mean that Dug is looking for a big drawing card to spring and interest in a prize-winning team next year.

That's a lot of money, $50,000, to pay a manager in this league. It is hardly likely that Dug would want such an expensive leader for the Northwest. If the Northwest and Pacific Coast Leagues merge, making a class A organization out of it, business might be expected to increase to such an extent that such men as Jones could be paid big salaries.

CORINTHIAN CLUB
TO VISIT CANADABritish Football Team Will Play
Games in Dominion Next Year

Toronto, Sept. 21.—It is altogether likely that the Corinthian football club will visit this country next year, and will play the local footballers a series of games while making the transcontinental tour.

On Saturday, Mr. G. A. Parker, the president of the Canadian Amateur Football Association, received a cablegram from M. C. Reford Brown, chairman of the Corinthian Club, stating that the trip was practically assured, and that there was but little doubt that the Britishers would visit Canada next summer.

This will not be the first time that the old country footballers have toured this part of the world, as they were here in 1904, when they defeated a local picked team by 6 to 4. This summer they visited Mexico, where they played a long series of games, easily winning most of them.

THOMPSON AND
POTTS ON 28TH.Will Meet in Calgary on That Date.
Potts-Burt Wrestling Bout is Declared Off

The wrestling match which was to have taken place in the Trustee Rink, Saturday between Budd Burt and Jimmy Potts has been declared off as Jimmy can not afford to get down to 133 pounds on account of his match with Thompson, which takes place in Calgary on September 28th.

Potts is already working out at the Senate Gym every afternoon for the Calgary bout and will not leave for the Southern city until the day before the fight. The public is invited to attend his workouts and Jimmy will be pleased to see any volunteer sparring partners. Budd Burt has promised to pitch right in and help Potts with his training, both with the gloves and on the mat.

This man Thompson is a tough customer and Potts expects the hardest fight of his career. They have met twice before, and the decision has been a draw on both occasions. The first time was about four years ago and Potts had all the better of the scrap for the first nine rounds. Then Thompson cut this eye open, and managed to even up the points.

The second meeting was about 18 months ago, and Thompson floored Potts three times in the early part of the fight, Jimmy taking the count of nine on every occasion. But the Minneapolis boxer showed his marvellous recuperative powers and came back strong enough to get a draw. This fight will be the deciding one and Calgary fight fans are certainly in for a treat next Wednesday. When one remembers that Thompson has twice won from Ketchell, by the knock-out route, he must be conceded to have class. But Potts is going better now, than ever before in his career and is not worthy very much over the outcome.

A great deal of interest is being manifested around town over the mill, and if a sufficient number can be secured a special car will be run to Calgary to look over the fighters.

HILLHURST WAS DONE BROWNWinning the Peoples Shield Netted
Them Exactly $35 for Their Expenses

From the Calgary News.

The Hillhurst boys are very much disgusted with the gate receipts they received for their games played in Toronto. It appears that Parker, the man with whom the Calhuns had the falling out, is again at the bottom of the disaffection. For their week's work in Toronto the Hillhurst boys received exactly $35, and according to them the other teams received even less notwithstanding the fact that 90 per cent. of the gate receipts were supposed to go to the visiting teams. According to the newspapers there were 600 people in attendance at the four games the Hillhurst boys played and their 90 per cent. should come to considerably more than the paltry sum they received.

The Hillhurst boys figure that the receipts should have come to about $200, out of which $500 would have been a high percentage for expenses. They have employed an accountant and solicitor to look into the matter in Toronto, and are going to go right after Parker for their rights. Parker is also blamed for mismanagement. The directors of the Toronto exhibition offered him $500 for the final game to be played at the exhibition grounds, though with a percentage over this amount, but Parker saw it to turn this offer down and pull off the game at Scarborough Beach, at a time when the crowds were all going to the exhibition. They also say that the games were not properly advertised by Parker, who did everything in his power to rub it in the Calgary boys whenever he could.

JUDGE TAYLOR HAD A TYPEWRITER ALSOLawyer Argued That Might Help to Prove Its Great Age—
District Court Cases

Judge Taylor handed out decisions this morning in the district court with great despatch. In largely vs. Preston the plaintiff claimed full payment of wages of $10.50 with costs while the defendants claimed that a deduction should be made from his wages for gloves lost on the work. The judge awarded the plaintiff $7.50 and costs.

In Shanks vs. Hilde a typewriter which formed the pivot of a contract between the parties was the subject of a warm discussion. As the contract was made in writing, the evidence as to the value of the typewriter or its age had little bearing on the case. Judge Taylor caused no little merriment by stating that he had had one of the same type as the one in question which had given satisfaction; indeed, it was quite possible that it was identical with the one in dispute. This Mr. McDonald, for the defence, urged was evidence of its great age. However the defendant was held to his contract and judgment for $5 and costs was granted against him.

In Dickson vs. Oudon judgment was given in plaintiff for breach of contract on part of defendant, $35.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 21.—D. Fletcher, who is promoting the series of baseball games between all star teams of the American and National Leagues, came to Detroit yesterday to secure Hughey Jennings to manage the American League team.

While here Fletcher called into conference the Detroit and Cleveland players under contract to him and possession of his certified checks for $500 each. Crawford, Mullin, Bush and Starnage, of Detroit, and Lajoie of Cleveland, joined his confab.

While none of them would talk for publication afterward, it is understood that they practically have agreed to defy the National Commission if Fletcher finds parks in which to play.

CALGARY Y.M.C.A.
WILL BE STRONGEskimos Must Turn Out to Practice
if They Wish to Win on October 1st.

The turnout at the Rugby practice last evening was a trifling sparse, but those out certainly worked with vigor and enthusiasm. Coach Belanger put the men through a hard drill in tackling, running and passing and afterwards the half backs lined up against the wings and scrumming for about half an hour. Everybody went at it hard, and there was considerable puffing and blowing, which will disappear as the players get conditioned. Those out last night were Gibson, Wilson, Starke, Rodgers, Bishop, Kennedy, McCracken, Murphy, Belanger, Benjamin Reid, Aldous, Crichton, McPherson, Roughton and several others. Another practice is called for today at 5 o'clock and a full turnout is requested. Calgary Y.M.C.A. has a strong aggregation and if the Eskimos wish to start out with a victory they really must turn out to practice. Speaking of the Calgary Y.M.C.A., team the Albertans say:

"The Y.M.C.A. rugby club will hold a full practice this evening at 6 o'clock. All the players are requested to turn out, as it is business from now on."

The team will play Edmonton in Eskimo town in October, so that all the players must be on hand if they wish to catch a place on the team. This will be the first time the Y.M.C.A. have had to come to meet the northerners, so they want their players in good shape so as to return home victorious.

"The Y's" also have championship aspirations this season, and the game will have some bearing on the Y.M.C.A.'s prospects."

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 21.—D. Fletcher, who is promoting the series of baseball games between all star teams of the American and National Leagues, came to Detroit yesterday to secure Hughey Jennings to manage the American League team.

While here Fletcher called into conference the Detroit and Cleveland players under contract to him and possession of his certified checks for $500 each. Crawford, Mullin, Bush and Starnage, of Detroit, and Lajoie of Cleveland, joined his confab.

While none of them would talk for publication afterward, it is understood that they practically have agreed to defy the National Commission if Fletcher finds parks in which to play.

Mechanics Who Build the Air

Union in New York

New York, Sept. 21.—James Wilson, local business agent of the International Association of Machinists, reported yesterday that for some time the organizers have been unionizing the machinists in the shops where aeroplanes are made in this vicinity. Most of them are now enrolled.

"These machinists have been distributed among the different lodges of District 15," Wilson said, "as there are not enough aeroplane machinists to form a separate lodge. As soon as there are enough a regular union of aeroplane machinists will be formed."

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE

Meetings will be Held in Three City
Churches During the Day

One of the foremost delegates to the bi-centenary celebration of the Church of England in Canada recently held at Halifax, N.S., is at present visiting in Edmonton, in the person of the Ven. T. J. Madden, Archdeacon of Liverpool. Archdeacon Madden is accompanied by the Rev. George H. Hanson, a prominent Presbyterian divine of Belfast, Ireland. The object of their touring Canada is to promote the interests of the Evangelical Alliance, of which they are both members. The Alliance is in existence for the manifestation and promotion of Christian unity and co-operation.

Several church gatherings will take place today at which the visiting divines will preach. This afternoon in All Saint's church, there will be a mass meeting of the religious bodies of the city. At 8 p.m. in the same church there will be a service, and Ven. Archdeacon Madden will preach. At the same hour in the First Presbyterian Church, there will be a similar service, with Rev. Mr. Hanson occupying the pulpit. At 9 o'clock a mass meeting will be held in the latter church, and both the visitors will deliver addresses.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

Alberta's Gold Medal Exhibit at Toronto Had Catchy Signs

"Where Crops Never Fail."
"No Irrigation—No Dry Farming."
The success of the Edmonton exhibit at Toronto fair was due no less to the efforts of the Board of Trade than to the high quality of the display. A few catch phrases prominently displayed caught the attention of the public which the exhibit was calculated to hold. These signs had to do with the ideas in vogue as to the necessity of irrigation and dry farming in Alberta which the public seems to cling to.

"Where crops never fail." "No irrigation, no dry farming" were samples of the signs used, and Mr. Port was amply rewarded by the inquiries and remarks of the visitors.

This is an opportunity you cannot afford to miss as the goods were personally selected at great advantage and prices are the very lowest consistent with the best goods.

You are cordially invited to inspect the stock.

Mr. McCaul argued that surely the decision of the trial judge could be taken as evidence in the appeal.

Judge Beck said that the view was only to help the judge to understand the evidence and the view could not be included with the evidence.

The case is in some ways an interesting one and will establish as precedent as to whether, if there are two blocks of land adjoining the one block lower than the other, the owner of the lower block can or cannot make use of his land. If he does make use of it it is certain that he will build a wall across there by turning back the water which the higher land shed and so compelling the owner of the higher land to find some other means of drainage other than natural means.

Judge Bach wished to know, if water drained down from one lot on to a second and the owner of the second lot made legitimate use of the lot by building on it and so forced back the water which perhaps flowed onto a third lot, who would be liable? Judge Harvey thought that no one would be liable.

INCINERATOR BLAZED

But Men Working There Put Fire
Out Before Damage Was Done

The city incinerator was seriously threatened by a fire yesterday morning which broke out between the ceiling and roof of the engine room. It spread rapidly and caught the wooden trestle leading up to the refuse level. The fire appliances of the building were at once called into use but it was not till the larger hose was brought to bear on the fire that it was finally extinguished.

Mr. W. S. Candy has just installed the Edmonton exhibit in the window of the office of F. C. Lowes & Co., at Lethbridge. The Season's Novelties in Fine Millinery

An unwritten law in correct styles for this Fall is that small hats have high crowns while the large hats have small, the backward slant to high crowns in turbans and small hats, and the tendency to place trimming so as to glide from the face at a sharp angle, are also marked features of this Fall Millinery. Every brim invariably droops at some one point. This is particularly noticeable in some of the larger hats with the poke effect, which shows a bewitchingly saucy bend in the front wide brim. Some of the late arrivals are worthy of individual description. This, of course, is impossible for want of space, but they await your inspection.

TO THE AUDIENCE

AT THE LYCEUM

Sherman's Musical Comedy Company under the leadership of the well known comedian Thomas J. Beeson, will present Thursday, Friday and Saturday a pretentious and original burlesque, entitled "A Mery Life." It is a highly hilarious farce interpolated with plenty of good music.

In this comedy the matter of dressing the chorus has received the personal attention of Mr. Sherman. It may be said that nowhere in the past or present has there been a dressing scheme devised to equal the originality and elegance of the chorus clothes in this show. The comedy in the play is teeming with wholesome humor which creates laughter at every stage of the game. The play has amusing and well defined comedy situations and the score and lyrics are far above the average in attractiveness. The plot gets lost in a maze of tinkling lines, but hops up serenely with a happy solution at the end.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 21.—George Reid, who murdered his wife at Clayburn two weeks ago in a fit of insane jealousy, evidently committed suicide, for his body was found today floating in the Fraser River. The throat was cut from ear to ear, apparently with the same razor as was used by Reid in killing his young wife. The young couple were from Midland, Ont.

NO ONE DROWNED;
JUST A BOAT UPSET

A workman at Walter's mill yesterday noticed some objects, caught in the boom opposite the mill, which had evidently floated down the river. On closer inspection they proved to be a tool chest, a fishing rod, two paddles, some blankets, and a box full of provisions. The man pulled them out of the water and communicated with the mounted police.

The tool chest showed the name of Ross Raymond on it, and it was thought for a time that an accident with fatal results had taken place. An accident indeed had happened, but without the fatal results.

A note book inside the chest bore the name of Frank Raymond, and referred frequently to the Strathcona Carriage Company, and the Brackman-Kerr Elevator Company. With the aid of these the police found that Raymond, who was working for the Brackman-Kerr company, had gone upstream with a friend for a shooting trip, and were towing their outfit in a boat. All went well till they reached a point opposite Ninth street, when the boat upset and their belongings went floating down stream.

A shot gun, a 22 rifle and some clothes went to the bottom, but the remainder floated down to the boom and were duly recovered by the owners at the mounted police barracks last night.

LACROSSE RULES
TO BE CHANGED

A Movement Is On Foot to Fashion Them After Eastern Baseball League

Montreal, Que., Sept. 21.—The Montreal Star today acclaims P. Powers president of the Eastern League, as the new prospective father of lacrosse, and publishes his portrait as such on the strength of the announced decision of some of the members of the committee appointed to revise the lacrosse rules, to take the eastern league baseball rules, adapt them to lacrosse and present them to the next convention as original rules. The Star says, in part: "How gratifying must it be to that grand man of Eastern League baseball, who has brought the rules to their present perfection, to have lacrosse men cast their eyes at these. The tribute which he will be paid to him, by the gentlemen who advocate in all seriousness this plan of having lacrosse governed by baseball rules in future ought to be the crowning glory of his existence. It will entirely overshadow the slight sentiment of bitterness that may be provoked by the fact that other men, will pose before thousands of lacrosse enthusiasts, unfamiliar with the baseball as the originators of the rules."

ALL ABOARD FOR
"BUSINESS TRIP"

Final arrangements were made at a special meeting of the Board of Trade held yesterday afternoon for the excursion of the business men of the city through Edmonton territory.

A special train will leave Strathcona on Monday at 22 a.m. and in five days will cover some 1600 miles—first to Olds, then back to Lacombe and east, on the last mentioned line to a point near St. Albert or Morinville, the train will run out to Camrose, from where they will come back to Edmonton and travel east and west on the C.N.R. and G.T.P. main lines. Short stops will be made at practically every town along the lines and no effort spared to gain accurate information of the conditions of business everywhere.

One of the main objects of the trip will be to agitate for a Central Alberta Development League and if possible to crystallize the scheme in some form or other. It is a somewhat ambitious project but the Board of Trade think the time ripe for it and are trying to obtain the support of the business community. Every comfort and convenience are to be furnished en route. Dining and sleeping accommodation are of the best and the board of trade look for above sixty excursionists to accompany them.
